The image shows a musical score for a piece titled "Directed Studies". The score is presented in two systems. The first system contains measures 4190 through 4290, and the second system contains measures 4290 through 4390. The notation is complex, featuring multiple staves with various rhythmic values, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and rests. There are several dynamic markings, such as "p" (piano) and "f" (forte), and articulation marks like accents and slurs. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with a key signature of one flat and a time signature of 4/4. The text "4190, 4290, 4390. Directed Studies." is printed below the first system of the score.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The image displays a complex musical score, likely for a multi-instrument ensemble or orchestra. It features numerous staves, each containing musical notation including notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The notation is dense and spans across the page, with some sections appearing to be repeated or variations of a theme. The overall layout is highly structured, typical of a formal musical score. The page is oriented vertically, with the score running from top to bottom.

5167 (HGAM 6270) Game Development Pipeline.

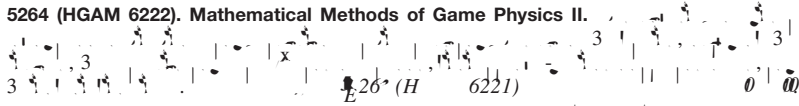

Musical notation for course 5167, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests, with a '3' indicating a triplet. The course number '5167' is written in a large, stylized font.

5263 (HGAM 6221) Mathematical Methods of Game Physics I.

5264 (HGAM 6222) Mathematical Methods of Game Physics II.

Musical notation for course 5264, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests, with a '3' indicating a triplet. The course number '5264' is written in a large, stylized font.

5265 (HGAM 6311) Software Development for Games I.

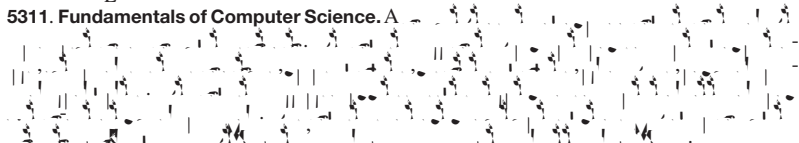

Musical notation for course 5265, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests, with a '2' indicating a pair of notes. The course number '5265' is written in a large, stylized font.

5266 (HGAM 6312) Software Development for Games II.

Musical notation for course 5266, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests, with a '3' indicating a triplet. The course number '5266' is written in a large, stylized font.

5311. Fundamentals of Computer Science. A

Musical notation for course 5311, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests. The course number '5311' is written in a large, stylized font.

5314. Software Testing and Quality Assurance.

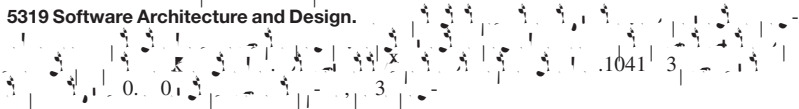

Musical notation for course 5314, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests. The course number '5314' is written in a large, stylized font.

5316 Software Requirements.

Musical notation for course 5316, including a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a time signature of 2/4. The notation features various rhythmic values and rests. The course number '5316' is written in a large, stylized font.

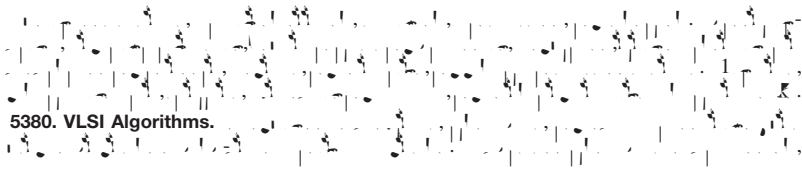

5319 Software Architecture and Design.
