

THE NINTH WEEK EVALUATION | MENTOR PASTOR/OSS* | PERKINS INTERN PROGRAM

INSTRUCTIONS: Please schedule a meeting to review the Intern's work using the following open-ended sentences to spark conversation. Once completed, the Mentor Pastor of the *On-Site Supervisor will complete The Ninth Week Evaluation Form and send it to both the Intern and the Intern Faculty as soon as possible on or before November 1st.

A G E N D A

Opening Prayer

Engage in a conversation where you give the Intern your observations on the following:

Part One: Learning Covenant Competencies

1. My observations of your progress in attaining the Learning Covenant's goals and tasks are these first few weeks are (have the Learning Covenant handy to refer to specific goals and tasks)
2. I observe that you received feedback on your learning goals in the following ways...
3. As you have fulfilled your Learning Covenant responsibilities, I have observed that you have strengths in the following abilities and skills..
4. The skills that I recommend you continue to improve are

Part Two: Personhood and Character

1. Based on my observations, I want to affirm the following gifts and personal qualities....
2. Your relationship with the staff, laity and/or program participants is best described as....
3. I would describe your communication style as

Part Three: Sending Forth

1. My greatest hope for you as you move forward on Internship is

Closing Prayer